
Question 33: What downstream processing issues have been associated with the overfeed of NaOH at the crude unit?

Caustic is injected with the crude charge on some units to reduce chlorides in the crude overhead system and impact the salting and corrosion potential.

Print as PDF:

Tags

Crudes

Distillation

Poisoning

Year

2019