Question 16: In recent years the gasoline blend pool has shifted due to increased ethanol blending, higher volumes of high RVP material from processing lighter crudes, and other specifications changes. How are you taking advantage of these changes to optimize the gasoline processing units?

Print as PDF: Tags Gasoline Processing Blending Crudes Operations Optimization Process Regenerator Tier III

Year

2014