
Question 82: Units operating with low main fractionator bottoms yield encounter a number of problems including coking and fouling in the slurry system and increased catalyst loading in the circulating slurry. What problems have you encountered and what practices have you done to manage these problems?

Print as PDF:

Tags

Catalysts

Fouling

Operability

Process

Reactor Vessel

Regenerator

Reliability

Slide Valves

Year

2014