WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Statement from the American Fuel & Petrochemical Manufacturers (AFPM) in response to the “Unified Framework for Fixing Our Broken Tax Code” released today by congressional Republican leaders and the Trump administration.

“Today’s framework is an important and welcomed step toward a modern tax code that will create jobs and enhance the global competitiveness of U.S. manufacturing. The proposal makes critical progress on a simpler, pro-growth tax policy and AFPM looks forward to reviewing further details of the plan as they emerge.”

About AFPM:

The American Fuel & Petrochemical Manufacturers (“AFPM”) is a national trade association representing nearly all U.S. refining and petrochemical manufacturing capacity. AFPM members produce the fuels that drive the U.S. economy and the chemical building blocks integral to millions of products that make modern life possible.
