RULE 26.1 STATEMENT

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 26.1 and D.C.
Circuit Rule 26.1, petitioners American Fuel & Petrochemical

Manufacturers (“AFPM”); California Asphalt Pavement Association (“CalAPA”); California Manufacturers & Technology Association (“CMTA”); Consumer Energy Alliance (“CEA”); Domestic Energy Producers Alliance (“DEPA”); Energy Marketers of America (“EMA”); International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers Lodge No. 823 (“IAMAW Lodge 823”); Louisiana Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association (“LMOGA”); National Association of Convenience Stores (“NACS”); The Petroleum Alliance of Oklahoma (“Petroleum Alliance”); Texas Oil & Gas Association (“TXOGA”); and Western States Petroleum Association (“WSPA”) hereby make the following disclosures:

AFPM is a national trade association that represents American refining and petrochemical companies. AFPM has no parent corporation, and no publicly held corporation has a 10% or greater ownership in AFPM.

CalAPA is a nonprofit trade association established in 1953 that represents the asphalt pavement industry in California, including asphalt producers, refiners, paving contractors, consultants, equipment manufacturers, and other companies that comprise the industry. CalAPA has no parent corporation, and no publicly held company owns ten percent or more of its stock.

CMTA is a nonprofit statewide trade association. Its members are companies engaged in the manufacturing and technology sectors in California who focus on improving and enhancing a strong business climate for California's manufacturing, processing, and technology-based companies. CMTA has no parent company, and no other entities have an ownership in, or voting control over CMTA.

CEA is a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization advocating for balanced energy and environmental policies and responsible access to resources. CEA has no parent corporation, and no publicly held corporation has a ten percent or greater ownership in CEA.

DEPA is a nonprofit, nonstock corporation organized under the laws of the state of Oklahoma. DEPA has no parent corporation, and no publicly held company owns 10 percent or more of its stock.

EMA is a federation of 47 state and regional trade associations representing energy marketers throughout the United States. EMA, which is incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, has no parent corporation, and no publicly held corporation has a ten percent or greater ownership in EMA.

IAMAW Lodge 823 is an unincorporated association and is a labor organization.

LMOGA is a business association representing the interests of the oil and gas industry of the second largest oil producing and fourth largest gas producing state in the nation, Louisiana. The state ranks second in the nation in crude oil refining capacity. LMOGA has no parent company, and no publicly held company has a ten percent or greater ownership in it.

NACS is an international trade association that represents both the convenience and fuel retailing industries with more than 1,300 retail and 1,600 supplier company members. The United States convenience industry has more than 152,000 stores across the country, employs 2.74 million people, and had more than $859 billion in sales in 2023, of which more than $532 billion were fuel sales. NACS has no parent corporation, and no publicly held corporation has a ten percent or greater ownership in NACS.

The Petroleum Alliance is a not-for-profit trade organization representing more than 1,400 individuals and member companies and their tens of thousands of employees in the upstream, midstream, and downstream sectors and ventures ranging from small, family-owned businesses to large, publicly traded corporations working in the MidContinent and other oil and gas producing regions nationwide. Members of The Petroleum Alliance produce, transport, process, and refine the bulk of Oklahoma's crude oil and natural gas. In 2023, the industry was responsible for almost $56 billion in state economic activity, 22% of the total statewide. The Petroleum Alliance of Oklahoma has no parent corporation, and no company has a ten percent or greater ownership in the organization.

TXOGA is a statewide trade association representing every facet of the Texas oil and gas industry including small independents and major producers. Collectively, the membership of TXOGA produces approximately 90 percent of Texas' crude oil and natural gas and operates the vast majority of the state's refineries and pipelines. In fiscal year 2023, the Texas oil and natural gas industry supported over 480,000 direct jobs and paid $26.3 billion in state and local taxes and state royalties, funding our state’s schools, roads and first responders. TXOGA has no parent corporation, and no publicly held company owns 10 percent or more of its stock.

WSPA is a nonprofit trade association that represents companies engaged in petroleum exploration, production, refining, transportation and marketing in Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon, and Washington. The association has no parent company, and no publicly held company has a ten percent or greater ownership in it.
